

Crossings Film Series: Brad Haugen

Brad Haugen has been using Crossings as a ministry resource since his first Crossings conference. He finds his theology aligning well with a community that puts the Gospel front and center. He also feels Crossings has helped to ground him as a pastor serving the church and world for the sake of the Gospel.

Brad appreciates how the Crossings Method helps him keep Law/Gospel in the back of his mind while preparing sermons. He also enjoyed being reminded at the conferences of what the Gospel does for him and how he can share it with others. They are also a chance to have conversations with people who share similar struggles and questions.
