

Crossings Film Series: Marla Wood Kay

Marla Wood Kay learned about Crossings from her homiletics professor as an undergraduate student at Valparaiso. Both the online resources and the Crossings conference have helped her better understand her own faith story. Marla sees the healing power of Christ as our Good News. She also sees how Christ brings that healing to a broken world.

Marla believes Crossings empowers people to speak the Good News. She has hope that the Lord will see this community continue on!
