

Crossings Film Series: Bruce Modahl

Bruce Modahl has been involved with Crossings for a number of years. Listen as he shares some of his thoughts on Crossings and how the Crossings method has the power to help us understand not only the text, but also our lives. Bruce shares how it helps keep our eyes on what is important, in scripture texts, or in sermons (written or heard). For Bruce, the power in the Crossings method is its ability to place a mirror before us and help us realize that we need a Savior.
