

Crossings Film Series: Emmy Kegler

Reverend Emmy Kegler serves as pastor of Grace Lutheran Church in Northeast Minneapolis. She joined the Crossings Community as a first-time speaker at Crossings' 8th International Conference. Listen as she gives a synopsis of her presentation, "Transgression, Depression and Oppression: Sin and Justice at the Margins of Faith." Emmy's presentation focused on helping break open our traditional understandings of sin. She sheds new light on how sin functions within discipleship, personal spiritual growth, the community, and within our corporate liturgy.

She enjoys learning about the Crossings method and how the six-step method of analyzing scripture can be used not only for understanding individual lives, but also for historical and current events.

Be sure to like us on Facebook!

And Subscribe to our YouTube Channel!