

Crossings Film Series: John Brudgid

First-call pastor, Jon Brudgid, was pleasantly surprised to see many connections between his congregation and people at the Crossings Conference. Jon shares his gratitude for the opportunity to attend the conference and take back what he's learned to his congregation. He looks forward to sharing the knowledge he's gained with lay leaders and bible study groups.

While Jon wasn't familiar with the Crossings Method before the conference, he is looking forward to using it in the future. Jon rates the conference as one of the most beneficial continuing education events he's attended.
