

Crossings Film Series: Linda Strader

Linda Strader was first introduced to the Crossings Community by her pastor. Since then, she has attended the Crossings Conference as a seminary student and now as a first-call pastor. She has always found the conference presenters challenging and thought-provoking.

For Linda, the Crossings method reminds us that it's not about what we do, but what God has done for us and for the world. As a second career pastor, Linda loves that Crossings is not just for biblical scholars, but also for those just getting started in Bible studies.
