

Crossings Film Series: Nathan Hall

Nathan Hall enjoys how Crossings Conferences engage your faith using both your brain and your heart. He has returned for multiple Crossings Conference and continues to find the speakers insightful and challenging.

Nathan has been utilizing Crossings resources since he graduated seminary and entered professional ministry. He finds both the weekly text studies and the website library useful in his sermon preparation. Nathan sees Crossings as the missing link connecting life and justice to what God is doing and saying in the death and resurrection of Jesus.
