

Crossings Film Series: Nathan Hall

Crossings is an important community and resource for Nathan Hall. Nathan was introduced to Crossings through his brother-in-law and began making use of the website, finding the text studies and blog very helpful for his ministry. Soon he was able to attend his first Crossings conference, taking advantage of the free tuition for first-call pastors.

Nathan found the Crossing conference to be one of the most useful continuing education events he has done. It compelled him to think deeply and enriched his understanding of Law/Gospel. Talking to "co-crossers" gave him new insights and fresh perspectives on preaching the Gospel.

Crossings has given him a renewed sense of how we encounter

Jesus in the brokenness of our world and in our communities.
