

Crossings Film Series: Nathan Schroeder

Nathan Schroeder shares how he uses Crossings every day. He also describes the concept of God's Law: How it helps keep civilization in place, but it's impossible for people to do right all the time. He also describes God's Promise: It doesn't replace the law, but God steps into the world to meet us where we are.

Nathan feels Crossings is important because it offers a unique focus on the Word of God. He has yet to encounter another organization that helps people make use of the cross in their daily lives.
