

Crossings Film Series: Rosalind (Roz) Norman

Rosalind (Roz) Norman is a semi-retired professor at the School of Business and Technology at Webster University. Roz is devoted to the city of St. Louis, having been raised there and continuing to volunteer her time in the community for over 40 years.

Roz believes that being a social change agent is the way to make the life of Jesus real based upon the Gospel. She believes in living out the saying, "Give a man a fish, you'll feed him for a day. Teach a man to fish, you'll feed him for a lifetime." To that end, Roz counts the Crossings Community among the resources she uses in helping others.
