

God's Peace/God's Justice: Episode 1

Hear Carol Braun describe times in her life where she's seen God's judgment and God's love at work: from her time in graduate school, interactions with family, and her career as a high school teacher.

She shares that we all have times when we rely on ourselves and we feel we don't measure up. We need to hear the Gospel and when we love each other through the Gospel it is participation in something divine.
