

God's Peace/God's Justice: Episode 2

Listen to Ben Williams as he tells how he experienced God's judgement in a high school youth group and how his time at college and his faith set him on a path to pastoral ministry.

He shares a story of his time as an intern and how one of his sermons touched a member of that congregation. Ben was blessed to be able to see how God's love worked through him and his preaching.
